

CTB

BRAZIL - OMAN

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Code of Ethics and Conduct

This Code sets out the principles and standards of conduct that guide the officers, staff and members of the Brazil–Oman Chamber of Commerce, reflecting our commitment to integrity, transparency and respect for governance best practices.

Purpose and Scope

This Code of Ethics and Conduct applies to all members of the Executive Board, the Fiscal Council, the International Advisory Council, staff and members of the Brazil–Oman Chamber of Commerce, in all institutional, commercial and representative activities, in Brazil, Oman or any other jurisdiction.

Fundamental Principles

The Chamber and its representatives act with integrity, legality, transparency, impartiality and mutual respect. We seek to promote solid commercial and institutional relations between Brazil and the Sultanate of Oman based on trust and respect for the laws and cultures of both countries.

Conduct in Institutional Relations

Chamber representatives must act with honesty and good faith in their interactions with public authorities, members, partners and other stakeholders, avoiding any conduct that could compromise the institution's reputation or independence.

Conflicts of Interest

Officers and staff must avoid situations that create a real or apparent conflict between their personal interests and those of the Chamber, and must disclose any potential conflict to the Fiscal Council or the Executive Board before taking part in related decisions.

Anti-Corruption and Anti-Bribery

The Chamber has zero tolerance for any form of corruption, bribery or facilitation payments, in accordance with Brazilian Law No. 12,846/2013 (Anti-Corruption Law) and other applicable rules in the jurisdictions where it operates. Offering, promising or accepting improper advantages on behalf of the institution is prohibited.

CTB

BRAZIL - OMAN

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Confidentiality and Data Protection

Confidential information belonging to members, candidates and partners — including personal data and compliance documents — must be handled in strict confidence and in accordance with Brazil's General Data Protection Law (Law No. 13,709/2018), and used solely for legitimate institutional purposes.

Relationship with Authorities and Third Parties

Every interaction with public bodies, regulators or government authorities, in Brazil or Oman, must observe strict legality and transparency; using improper influence to obtain benefits for the Chamber or third parties is prohibited.

Integrity Channel

Situations that constitute a breach of this Code can be reported through the Chamber's Integrity Channel, available on the Compliance page, with confidentiality and protection for good-faith whistleblowers guaranteed.

Consequences of Non-Compliance

Non-compliance with this Code may result in a warning, suspension or removal from the membership roll or from the position held, without prejudice to any applicable legal measures, as assessed by the Executive Board and the Fiscal Council.

Effectiveness and Review

This Code takes effect on its publication date and will be reviewed periodically by the Executive Board, and may be updated to reflect legislative or institutional changes.

Version 1.0 — Brazil–Oman Chamber of Commerce.